

This book contains over 100 word search puzzles of varied type and difficulty. Besides the classical type of word search puzzles, there are also open puzzles with no word lists at all, for added challenge. Also included are clued puzzles - can you find the words in the grid based on the given clues? The puzzles are implemented according to topics - from insects to opera composers, from rare languages to famous ships, from three-letter words to complex Welsh place-names. Solutions to all puzzles are at the end of the book. All puzzles are printed in a clear, easily legible font.
