

The United States of America did warn on two different occasions that if Nigeria should continue the way that it is going, the country may disintegrate by 2015. A lot of other analysts have attested to that fact and current events are leading to that direction. This book analyzes the threats to the corporate existence of Nigeria and also proffers solutions. The book is both revealing and prescriptive. The book is an intellectual property for teachers and students of political science, history and public administration, it also provides information to the general public on the state of the nation in Nigeria.
