

International Fisheries Exhibition. fcxw LONDON, 1883. Conference on July 27TH, 1883. E. BIRKBECK, Esq., MP., in the chair. A NATIONAL FISHERIES SOCIETY. Mr. Fryer spoke as follows :W hen I was invited, before these Conferences began, to read 3. Paper on some question connected with the Fishing I ndustry, and suggested, as a subject, the proposal, which I have the honour to bring under your notice to-day, for the formation of a National Society which should take up and carry on permanently, and on an extended basis, the good work which this Exhibition is, for the time being, doing in .promoting a practical knowledge of the Fisheries, and in fostering enterprise in their development, I little thought that my suggestion would have received, by anticipation, such influential support as was accorded to it in the Inaugural Address delivered by the distinguished gentleman under whom I have the honour to serve, and who then expressed lthe confident belief... that in these Conferences we have the xgerm out of which, by due process of evolution, a society especially devoted to the promotion of the interests of the fisheries of these islands may spring.(Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and dont occur in the book.)About the Publisher Forgotten Books is a publisher of historical writings, such as: Philosophy, Classics, Science, Religion, History, Folklore and Mythology.Forgotten Books Classic Reprint Series utilizes the latest technology to regenerate facsimiles of historically important writings.
