

A precious destiny This is a random selection of paragraphs excerpted from the book. They could be related to many people, in a particular moment of their life: -Your sister has been taken to live in the girls orphanage and there would be nobody home Musa had long forgotten about home.. -They prayed for the people who were fleeing their homes, and hoped they could find shelter. They prayed for peace on earth.-He asked that those students confess to their sins and ask forgiveness from the lord, he explained that the sixth commandment could be violated by thoughts. --He had discovered a pleasure nest close to his house, and was afraid to divulge this secret to any one, fearing to be accused of wrong doing.-Yes I am engaged to him, actually from my birth, and this is unfair. I do not have any affection towards him, and I do not know if I would ever love him. Dont you know the silly costumes of this country?-George, who was very handsome in his new suit, was taking possession of his bride from her father who walked her from her home to the churchs entrance.-Hundreds of small boats, attached together by leaf ropes forming the floating foundation of the bridge.
