

Six silvery tales from around the world to delight and inspire Six stories of shimmering silver are gathered together in this enchanting collection of tales from around the world. From the silver fish that saves the life of a young girl to the horse with a silvery mane that brings good fortune, these magical tales will delight and inspire. Engagingly retold by Barbara Baumgartner, each tale includes a moral pointer to help guide the younger reader to a fuller understanding of the story, while Amanda Halls wonderfully rich illustrations feature strands of silver that glows from every page.
