

When children spend time with Bear, every minute is fun. That's because he's on the go all morning long, and kids can test their skills as they figure out what he's doing. First up on the menu: breakfast at eight. What will Bear put on his plate? A hot dog, a bone, a scrumptious lolly? Or is it the egg that's yummy in his tummy? Open the flap and find out what he wants. There's a guessing game for every hour till noon, when he gets a big hug from you-know-who: MOM. Harriet Ziefert's sweet text and Arthur Lobel's timeless paintings make this a real charmer.
