

Bring it On is a mixture of memoir and spiritual self-help, telling the story of its authors path to spiritual development . The intention is to show others that the path is available to them, if they chose to take it. It is not an easy path but it a rewarding one. The path referred to is summarised in an accompanying document as an eight-step process to self-discovery. The archetype of Bring it On is a construct from the work of Joseph Campbell. Bring it On is remarkably illuminating, cohesive and candid in its personal disclosures. Despite its odyssean content, it is very tightly, systematically structured.
