

Everyone knows the story of Willy Wonka's chocolate factory, the golden tickets, and the four ungrateful brats who got what was coming to them. But no one knows what happened AFTERWARD. When a wounded oompa-loompa jumps the fence, and sings an ominous song warning people of the horrors that now reside there, four journalists dare to enter the long since abandoned chocolate factory and uncover the mysteries. In this delightfully dark parody described by author Thomas J. Black as Charlie and the Chocolate Factory as written by H.P. Lovecraft, We see what REALLY happened to the other kids, zombie oompa-loompas, and other unspeakable horrors.
