

Just as physical families have to face difficulties, so every group of believers will face challenges in their life together. In Christ Alone, Jon Zens opens up five crucial areas that every group will wrestle with at some point in their journey. The first challengeâ€”for Christ to be everythingâ€”is the first priority and the other four challenges flow out of it. How do we show that we trust Christ as our Leader? How can we deepen our relationships with one another? Do we define ourselves and find our identity in Christ, or in Adam? When problems arise will we let the love of Christ reign in our midst? Stephen Crosby concluded, Do yourself a favorâ€”use Christ Alone as a roadmap to help you and those you love avoid common pitfalls in the journey. Searching Together is a quarterly journal exploring Christ with one another.
