

1934: Treasure hunter Dust McAlan is the kind of rogue who finds himself knee-deep in trouble as often as he possibly can. Racing airplanes for a living -- as well as scouring the world for ancient treasure to sell to private collectors -- has a way of doing that. But after a meeting with a wealthy French aristocrat, Dust finds himself in search of a mythical jewel known as the Heart of the Serpent, a ruby with strange powers that could unlock the secrets of Atlantis. Old friends and new foes have separate ideas, however, as the same catastrophe that sunk Atlantis could rise in power once more. Adventure, pulp thrills, and terror collide as Dust races against time to locate the Heart of the Serpent. But the consequences could be more personal than he could even begin to imagine. DUST MCALAN AND THE HEART OF THE SERPENT features black & white illustrations from artists Casey and Shon Burch, as well as a cover by Qistina Khalidah. Fans of Indiana Jones, Uncharted, and Crimson Skies will enjoy Dust McAlans thrilling pulp adventures.
