

Four friends. One plan. Zero common sense. Paul, Marty, Victor and Matt are late-twenties men that have a single plan: meet new women and fix their godforsaken, pathetic lives. The only problem is that they completely forget to consider the feelings of anyone but themselves as they spiral down into miserable situations, leaving them worse for wear. With their individual approaches and ill-advised team efforts, itâ€™s one hilarious and shocking adventure after another. A brazen story of friendship and adult stupidity, Empathetic is a comedic marvel.
