

The catchy language of Boontling was born as a spoken language in Northern California in the area of Bell Valley and Boonville. This book lists the words in English and then gives you their fun Boontling origin. It also has sentences that you can practice on to learn it for yourself. It also has never published poem by Don Ite Pardini.

Hospitable Performances: Dramatic Genre and Cultural Practices in Early Modern England, Lontra: Fotos Incriveis e Factos Divertidos sobre Lontra para Crianças (Serie Lembra-te de Mim) (Portuguese Edition), Tapestries in Sand the Spirit of Sandpainting, Scale Military Figure Conversions, Help Us to Pray, Relentless Pursuit, The Guilt of William Hohenzollern (Classic Reprint), An Introduction to Programming and Object-oriented Design Using Java: Java 5.0 Version, The Library of Alexandria and the Lighthouse of Alexandria: The Ancient Egyptian Citys Most Famous Sites,

)-()}Boontling, as the locals called it, was an elaborate jargon . {Functional shift of the noun eeble, like the conversion of English eyeball.}. Boontling is a jargon or argot spoken only in Boonville in Northern California. Today it is nearly extinct, and fewer than people still speak it. It has an IANA sub-tag of boont (i.e. en-boont). History and description[edit]. Although based on English, many of Boontling's unusual words are unique.{/REPLACEMENT}
