

Over the years, I have seen more than a thousand football matches at locations across Britain and Europe, from grounds that were little more than park pitches to some of the world's best stadia. This volume details my initial visit to the second hundred of these grounds, with background information about the home club in each case. The visits cover the period from late 1999 to 2001, as I completed the ninety-two in England and the forty-two in Scotland.
