

The Heavenly Citizens series serves as a tool to help the Christian understand not only what the Bible teaches us, but also how to study the Bible. Explaining what the Bible teaches is like giving someone a fish to eat. Teaching how to study the Bible is like teaching someone how to fish so they can feed themselves. Both approaches are essential to developing spiritual maturity. Genesis is the first volume in the Heavenly Citizens series. In this book we have the fallacies of evolution debunked, the origins of the world and mankind and sin revealed, and the first case of fratricide and attempted deicide narrated. The families of man are exposed as numbering two, and their development from creation to circa 1500 B.C. is discoursed upon. The Tower of Babel, the Lord's call of Abraham and establishment of the Hebrew people, Isaac vs. Ishmael, Jacob vs. Esau, the sibling rivalry of Joseph and his eleven brothers, and the eventual move from Canaan to Egypt to live. We have the pleasure to learn about the Lord's solution for sin in the world (the context). From that context we draw principles behind the Lord's solution, and then we apply those principles to Christian living today. That is the approach for Genesis and for every volume in the Heavenly Citizens series. We teach the student the meaning of Scripture and we teach him or her how to study the Bible on his/her own. We do this in two ways: we provide a few rules by which to govern our Bible study, and we demonstrate by example how to study the Bible. Experience is an outstanding teacher. We practice in our books the rules for Bible study. By walking through the Bible with us, the reader experiences firsthand what our method of study is like. We believe the student will come out of our studies with both an understanding of the Bible and the ability to truthfully and intelligently study the Bible on his/her own. The path lies before you. Walk through the gate and join the journey with us! And may the blessings of the Lord Jesus Christ be yours in abundance.
