

A story of the risk of achieving the ultimate physique at all costs. The degenerative nature of steroid abuse combined with pressures from unsympathetic bosses are documented by Shaw in a manner that draws the reader in. Your sympathies are held as he fights his demons and tries to return to his good natured and gentle persona. Shaw has a fantastic memory for events, as they are recalled and pieced together to form the script for his life on the doors of some of Leicesters alternative clubs. The character descriptions evoke strong memories of the eighties and nineties with the associated Goth and sub-Goth cultures.
