

Henry Stuart Tegnors 1974 treatise on the ghosts, legend and folklore of the North East of England has long been revered for its meticulous research. Now, in this re-issue of his work, one can relive the tales of the Cauld Lad of Hylton, the Lambton Worm and the spectres and poltergeists of the numerous castles in the North of England. Each are discussed in detail and their origins explored. The research of Henry Tegner, who passed away in 1980, deserves a place on the book shelves of any ghost aficionado, or those who relish folk tales.
