

if I am annoyed I sit down and write poems. The poems that you read in this volume might therefore seem to be outpourings of anger. Because, that is exactly what they are. When something annoys or irritates me I file it away, ruminate upon it and eventually turn it into a twisted barb that I can insert carelessly into the soft flesh of the World. But I hope that they are also tinged with humour and bring a smile to your outraged lips. A word of warning though: I am NOT politically correct and some of the language that I have used might offend the more sensitive!
