

During his more than thirty years on earth the Lord Jesus Christ lived a life so blameless that even unbelievers testified to His faultlessness. Void of any trespass of Gods law, He satisfied, pleased, and moved in perfect union with His heavenly Father. Imago Christi is a probing and majestic view of the Lords holiness in private, in public, with His friends, and with His foes. Twenty-first century readers will find this creative and thought-provoking masterpiece as enthralling as its original nineteenth-century audience. Imago Christi is a classic you will enjoy again and again.
