

In Jake the Cow Horse, Cookie Grimes shares a heartwarming and true story of a golden palomino roping horse champion in his youth who had always worked for the humans, but never really felt love. He was a loner, even when he was with other horses. If he wasn't working, he would always be standing out in the field, keeping to himself. That is until he was taken up to Montana from Oklahoma and finally meets a young ranch girl named Cody, who wants a friend she can love and tenderly care for. Extraordinary changes can happen when an animal experiences love from a human: Jake the Cow Horse and Cody find exuberant happiness in the enchanting chemistry that God seems to bless on young girls and horses.
