

It's a man's world and Lydia lives and works in the heart of it. Selling luxurious purple in a Roman trade city, she watches the people struggle to preserve their decaying empire through devotion to pale, lifeless gods of stone and myth. Followers of The Way arrive and share with Lydia and the citizens of Philippi a powerful new message of love and redemption. Caught in the middle is Marcus, Lydia's young cousin whom she raised as her own. Marcus searches for truth in a world of deceit. Seduced by the ways of Rome, he questions the promise of hope through Jesus of Nazareth. Can Lydia survive in this man's world and help Marcus choose the correct path?
