Its a timely, up to date chronicle filled with action, adventure, intrigue, romance, science, politics and peril. In the not too distant future, the worlds economy has completely collapsed. The new one world government has plans to usher in a new era of peace and economic security with one slight hitch; everyone is now required to take a bio-chip inserted into the lower right quadrant of their palm. This replaces the old outdated banking and currency systems throughout the globe. Everyone is now required to take the microchip or suffer the consequences. Tens of thousands flee to find safe haven where they can live in harmony without being micro-chipped. Soon order is restored from chaos and all is well in the world. Or is it? Is this data transmitter more than it seems? Is there more than just a financial agenda behind the frightening technology that lurks deep within the bio-chip? Microchip takes a cross section out of the lives of several different people from diverse walks of life and follows each one through their thrilling experiences; all the way to the astonishing conclusion. Synopsis Prologue Global elitist Winthrop Shaw is determined to accelerate the New World Orders planned timeline to inoculate all the citizens of the planet. He calls for a meeting with the highest ranking members of the global elite. There he demonstrates the capability of the new improved microchip by using his trusted assistant Nelson Thurn as a guinea pig. The annual Global Union Assembly holds a surprise for its assembled members. Toni Vickery:- 5th grade teacher Toni Vickery is uncomfortable with what she sees happening and vows that she will never succumb to taking a chip. She witnesses injections of school children first-hand at school and a banking representative gives her good information on all the benefits of the microchip. Glick:- Freedom loving Harley rider Glick cant hold down a steady job. After a hard night of drinking he spots the front page headline announcing a mandatory micro-chipping program. He meets an old friend to discuss the new law. A road trip to get away sounds just like the thing. He meets several interesting characters along the way including a Baptist Minister named Vernon Bloom. Emma Jackson Elderly licensed practical nurse in Detroit MI dotingly raises her great grandson T.J. When she goes to receive her microchip she notices something disturbing in the process and changes her mind. Tim Connor City worker John Conner receives notification that all government employee salaries will be withheld until receiving a WCR banking identification microchip. Salaries Microchip takes a cross section will not be issued to any city employees not bearing the WCR microchip. Marlene Carson Workaholic U.S. Senator Marlene Carson is almost too concerned with the upcoming election to notice the new legislation being passed under the very noses of the Senate. Despite receiving a dire warning, Marlene leads the charge to reject the microchip moratorium. She pays dearly for her decision.
