

Is a Suspense or a Crime ? Once upon time there was a tall, slender woman in her mid-thirties spotted the two wealthy-looking women about her age at the end of the bar. She picked up her martini, walked over and sat down next to them. "Are you ladies expecting company?" Mary and Sylvia were overdressed, even for this fancy nightclub. "I'm afraid not," said Mary. "She saw the woman's eyes go to her chest. It was hard to tell whether she was admiring Mary's ample cleavage or the four-thousand dollar cultured pearls draped across it. "Hi. I'm Dolly Otterman." "I'm Mary Goldalore." When she held out her hand, Mary's diamond bracelet seemed to catch every light in the room. It was stunning, and she enjoyed showing it off. "Sylvia Partov."
