

Primal Scream is a collection of rebel poetry documenting an artists slow, often painful, emergence from the cultural indoctrinations of social, psychological and emotional authoritarianism. Some echoes of the Beat Poets such as Allen Ginsberg, Jack Kerouac and Lawrence Ferlinghetti can be felt, but first and foremost this collection is a personal psychological space developed in the process of de-linking from a society that abhors critical thinking. Primal Scream is an intimate, candid record of a personal journey toward proactive dissatisfaction and constructive dissent in an increasingly locked-down society.
