

Isis was a breed killer and just as deadly as she was beautiful. Taking a life was natural to her, proving that she was definitely her father's child. After her father dies, Isis is handed down the family's business of assassins. But she doesn't want that. Instead, she develops the plan of getting together a group of all females that she trains and takes under her wings. In no time, the ladies are skilled and living lovely thanks to Isis. She calls them her Queens of Death and treats them like family instead of employees. When trouble comes to her home and one person she thought she could trust turns on her; Isis is out for blood. Nothing or nobody will stop her rampage, or so she thought.
