

This is the book that improves our outlook on everything. Extraordinary events leads to a traumatic conspiracy, which demands the overcoming of seemingly impossible obstacles. The outcomes are superlatives. We see that most men and women are heroes, driven by their own physical and unconscious imperative to survive. The universe is timeless and infinite, where everything from the smallest to the largest also responds to its own imperatives. The New Theory of Everything easily resolves difficulties that have hitherto defeated the best brains. It makes a new purposeful advance to the Theory of Evolution. Out of date ideas are thrown out. It creates a common denominator for all humanity. Part II provides powerful techniques to earn good incomes during boom times and recession. Few people are aware of them. Life is an expression of the energy of the universe. The glory is in the struggle to live, well undertaken.
