Joe Hayes's books are always delightful, perhaps because, as I read them, I can almost hear the warm, inviting voice of this. Not until he met the back end of a skunk. And this wasn't just an ordinary skunk, but one who was lovesick. But I'm not going to tell you who she was in love with. The key character is not a skunk, as the title suggests, but a pair of very smelly sneakers. The bespectacled boy narrator refuses to stop wearing.
