

Mabel Mouse is very upset when she gets a cold. Her daughter has a cold and she has only just recovered from the last one! She decides that the cold cellar of the beautiful country home that she and her family live in is the problem. Her husband, Walter, promises to find a new home for the family with Norman, his eldest son, but will this be as easy as it sounds? Their search takes them beyond the house and far from home. Can they escape a stealthy farm cat? And can they find anyone to take them in for their one night away from home? Find out in this charming tale, suitable for children aged five to seven years.
