Doctors are specially trained and licensed medical professionals, and their job is to make a diagnosis (find what's making you ill) and then, treat you so that you can get better. These doctors work together to keep your community healthy. They provide us with goods (products we use) and services (things they do for us). Some examples of community helpers are: doctors, nurses, chefs, bakers, astronauts, soldiers, teachers, dentists, mail carriers, bus drivers, coaches, babysitters, fishermen, plumbers, firefighters, farmers, librarians, and volunteers.
