

The first installation of a WWII lesbian novella about a girl named Anne who falls in love with another woman while running away from a life with her strict and brutal father. Anne has trouble accepting her feelings for Jenny, a wealthy and beautiful woman who has chosen to work in the plane yards to help the war effort rather than focus on finding a man in which to marry. In the beginning their friendship was innocent but with Annes unexpected return and Jennys recent loneliness, due to her fiance off at war, the heat is on the rise for the both of them.
