February 15, Why We Believe the Bible. Session 2. The Inspiration, Inerrancy, and Authority of the Bible. Resource by. John Piper. Close.

At this point, it is important not to let circular reasoning become the justification for believing the Bible. We cannot say that one should believe the Bible simply. Is the Bible true from cover to cover? How do we know it's really God's Word? And why are there so many translations?. That is a fair question. The fundamental answer to that question is that we should believe the Bible because it is the word of God (2 Tim.). The Holy Spirit. I've put these five points together as something of a quick reference notecard for why I believe the Bible. They can serve as a quick reference. Believe the Bible because it is the word of God and it has been accurately copied and transmitted to us today. It is inspired, full of wisdom, and truth. shakethatbrain.com The Bible claims that it's God's Word, it makes sense, and the Holy Spirit provides inner confirmation to us. Canonicity depended on. Though we have only partial knowledge, we believe it is sufficient upon which to base our faith. In coming to the Bible, we do not have all the. In the fourth chapter of Hebrews, verse 12, it says: "For the word of God is living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing.
